TENBY'S FAST MILE.

A let of water fell at Hawthorne yesterday and those that went to the track expecting to find the going muddy were agreeably surprised. Rain was needed as the ground was very dry and dusty. The track was not at its best, being a trifle cuppy, but it was fast as was shown in the mile race which Tenby won in 1:39%.

The Tenby race was the feature of the day

The Tenby race was the feature of the day and stamps both him and Benneville as being horses of high standard. Benneville carried 115½ to Tenby's 107, and considering that he set the pace and won down such a speedy mare as Eugenia Wickes in going the first half mile, it was a grand performance.

Tenby was ridden to perfection by Nutt, who saved him like a veteran in the first part of the journey and made his move at the right time. He got to Benneville and had the latter beaten at the eighth post and was then easing up at the end. Had the track been at its best and Tenby fully extended he would possibly have made a new record for a mile.

Louis Ezell handed the ring one in the fifth race which was a three-quarter condition affair. He had his good filly, Espionage, keyed up to concert pitch and backed her from 3 to 1 and better down to 11 to 5. Rutter had the mount and laying in a good position next to the rail all of the way, he shot out of the bunch like a flash on the stretch turn and before the other boys had a chance to realize what had happened he had stolen a long lead and eventually won easily from Sim W. and Semper Eadem. Sim W. had up quite a lot of weight and ran a cracking good race.

A pretty struggle between two strong, competent jockeys was seen in the second race. This was a three-quarter dash and fifteen started.

Peter McCue jumped out into the lead soon after the start and led by three lengths into the Here he began to show signs of weak stretch. ness and there was a general closing up. Peter gave it up at the eighth post, and from there to the wire the race narrowed down to a struggle between Lord Zeni and Tappan. Vandusen rode the latter and Knapp had the mount on Lord Zeni. Both boys are good riders and strong finishers. Consequently the public was treated to a first-class exhibition of horseman Lord Zeni was on the outside ship. and Knapp took particular pains not to let Tappan squeeze through between him and the rail. Vandusen, however, was determined and would not pull up and go around. So the two boys fought and struggled all the last sixteenth, Lord Zeni finally winning by a shore head.

Miss Ethel McGuigan's handsome filly Unsightly won another fine race for her handsome owner in the initial five furlong spin for two-year-olds. Unsightly was the natural favorite and was backed from 2 to 1 down to 7 to 5. She got away third, but immediately went to the front, and leading throughout, won pulling up from Zaza. Unsightly is perhaps the best of her sex at the local tracks.

Uarda, who is in her very best form at present, had an easy task in the mile and an eighth race. Rutter shot her to the front passing the stand and she was never again bothered, winning away off by herself and hard held from Pan Charm.

Talbot Brothers' Eberhart was backed off the boards to win the last race, but the best he could do was to get the place. The winner turned up in Carnero, who pulled up sound and is liable to regain his 1897 form again.

Several of the jcckeys were sick yesterday. The room they are compelled to stay in is built on the west side of the grounds, and is consequently exposed to the sun all the afternoon.

For some unknown reason the windows were all nailed up yesterday, and this made the room a regular sweat-box.

Captain Rees has this to say of the Henry Launt disqualification on Monday: "Freeman was whipping and driving in a reckless way below the sixteenth post and bore in repeatedly on Del Paso II. Beauchamp, ou the latter, was obliged to take up and come around Henry Launt." Mr. Rees also stated that he had made up his mind to disqualify Henry Launt before Beauchamp made his claim.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The authority that governs all flat racing in England, the Jockey Club, has decided that in all two-year-old races run under its jurisdiction next year the starting barrier, or gate, shall be used. If the experiment proves satisfactory the two and three-year-old races of the succeeding year will be started in the same manner. Lord Durham, a strong advocate of the innovation, so impressed his co-members of the Jockey Club by his arguments in favor of its use that to him is mainly due this radical change in English racing.

Some extracts from his address are here presented. Daily attendants on racing in this country will be amused and interested in observing how closely they portray what occurs day after day on American racetracks. It is obvious that the so-called starting problem presents the same features in both countries and that if some new method results in more even and expeditious starting in one country it should prove to be equally efficacious in the other.

In the course of his address Lord Durham said: "The rule said: 'Any jockey presuming to start, or even to put his horse into a trot or canter with a view to take any advantage before the flags are dropped, wilfully turning his horse around, not starting when the flags are dropped, hanging behind, or refusing to obey the commands of the starter in any respect whatever, shall be reported to the stewards.' The jockey was never reported; and in every single race jockeys were always trotting and cantering their horses and wilfully turning their heads around.

"Another thing which jockeys were not supposed to do, but which they did in every single race, was that they got in front of the starting post when they ought to be coming back to the starter; and long before they returned to the proper position they again whipped their horses round in order to secure an advantage at the start. He thought it was clear that their present rules of starting were not observed, and the matter had come to such a pass, owing to the flag system of starting having become viciously altered from its original constitution, that the jockeys took charge of the starter, instead of the starter taking charge of the jockeys.

"He would point out to the opponents of the starting gate, who feared that our horses were so very much more excitable and irritable than horses bred in other countries, that in the case of a horse having bolted from the post, it very often happened that the horses left waiting at the post for the other horses to come back were as quiet as old troop horses, because the jockeys left them alone; they dropped the reins on their necks and the horses stood quite quietly.

"When a horse has bolted, do you think the jockeys will wait till that horse comes back? No; when he gets within twenty yards of my flag off they go, and never give him a chance; if they do give him a chance of turning around, then, before the horse is half round off they are again."

Minister Strauss writes from Constantinople, under date of May 18, 1899, that, according to a note verbale from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Turkey, the regulations prohibiting the exportation of horses from that country have been removed and a duty of 5 Turkish liras ($24) will be charged upon each horse exported. As inquiries are made from time to time regarding the export of Arab horses from Turkey, this information may be of interest.

Many of the leading western stables are quartered at the Saratoga track. Ed Corrigan has all his juvenile cracks at the famous New York summer resort. Corrigan has a strong band of -year-olds in Golden Rule, Sardine, Basseda and St. Anthony. Golden Rule is considered one of the fastest two-year-olds developed in the west this season. He is thought good enough to beat the best of the crack eastern youngsters. Sardine is good enough to beat any of the eastern fillies. Another western horseman. who has a string that ought to cut big figure at the Saratoga meeting, is Tom Mc He has Rush, Spirituelle, His Excellency and other good ones in his stable. ney Schreiber's string is among the latest arrivals at Saratoga. Tayon, a two-year-old bay colt by Lissak—Caroline Hamilton, in the Schreiber string, was seized with a car route to Saratoga, and severely injured himself before he quieted down.

There promises to be rare doings at Saratoga in the two-year-old division. Corrigan's Golden Rule and Sardine, Tomlinson & Co.'s The Conqueror, C. H. Smith's Lieutenant Gibson, Schorr's Sam Phillips, McDowell's His Excellency, J. D. Smith's Estill and Clay Broa,' Kilmarnock are among those that will clash with the pick of the eastern youngsters. When the smoke of battle clears away it may be concluded that we have some downright good two-year-olds after all, something that might well be doubted if the gloomy criticisms of the New York scribes were set down as gospel truth.

Critics at Brighton Beach say that Martimas has grown but little in height since last year but that he is a colt of wonderful muscular development. His trial with 115 pounds up prior to the Brighton Beach Handicap was as follows: 124, 244, 364, 484, 1:014, 1:144, 1:274, 1:40, 1:54, 2:074. That would be good enough to win most races, and in the actual race he must have done at least 2:064. He is evidently a very good horse and a race between him and Ethelbert at even weights would be sure to exite great interest.

Speaking of Flaunt's victory in the Undergraduate Stakes at Brighton Beach Saturday a New York newspaper says: "It was a wonder that Flaunt was ever able to get home as he did, for he was cut down three times in the race. One of the cuts was on the hock, and a difference of a fraction of an inch in its depth would have ended the colt's usefulness forever."

Marcus Daly has sixty-seven foals of this year at his Bitter Root Stock Farm. Inverness is the sire of 12, Montana and The Pepper, 11 each: Tammany, 9; Bathampton, 4; Meddler, 3. The others are by Matt Byrnes, Sam Lucas, Goldfinch, Star Ruby, Friar, Hanover and the English sires Kendall, Donovan, Ravensbury, Crowberry, Ayrshire and Primrose.

The yearlings of E. F. Simms and those of W. P. Norton will be shipped to Sheepshead Bay in a few days where they will be broken and handled for racing next season. In Mr. Simms' lot are a full brother to Tom Collins and a half brother to The Kentuckian. In Mr. Norton's shipment is a full brother to Sunny Slope.—

NOTES OF THE TURF.

In a personal note Secretary Hopper of Latonia writes: "Latonia's fall meeting will commence October 7 and close October 28—nineteen days' racing. We will close the usual stakes; date of closing, September 1. The betting ring will be open to all responsible bookmakers. No

Marcus Daly has sent his jockey Morgan out to his Montana ranch. Morgan was badly hurt by a fall while the Aqueduct meeting was in progress and will stay at the ranch until fully recovered.

Kingston Stud Farm, from which Starter James B. Ferguson has sent forth many noted winners, is offered for sale. Starter Jim, it is rumored, is to become permanently a Californian.

R. H. Bronaugh shipped his stable, including Richardson, Junaetta, Cringe and four or five others, to Windsor Monday from Latonia.
Lige Brewster will ship to Harlem today.

The steeplechase horse Diversion has gone amiss and will not face the flag again for some

With three firsts, a second and a third Tod Sloan had a very good day at Newmarket yesterday.

Hurdle racing and steeplechasing are to be made a feature of the Latonia fall meeting. The bay filly Oriva, by Ormonde—Geneva, by Fonso, died at Saratoga July 2.

Jean Beraud has been stopped in his work again, having been going sore.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general perform ance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicted, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL

The American Sporting Manual of 1898 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by Daily Racing Form's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler), harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Herse Review) and three handicap tables, with direct tions for their application and expert comm The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.

AMERICAN RACING RULES OF 1899.

The 1899 edition of the American Racing Rules, published by Secretary E. C. Hopper of the American Turf Congress, is out and can be sent by mail to any address from this office for 25 cents. Winner—Br. f, by Pursebearer—Hira Villa.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily: second band ridden; third and fourth doing their best. Unsightly is a good filly and is in the best of form at present. She raced Zeza into submission in the first helf and loafed the rest of the journey. Zeza had co excuses. She was away flying and was never bothered. Mission had some bad luck at the start but got out of it all right and in p'enty of time to run a good race. Honeywood was renning great guns at the fluish. Maharejah was all tangled up at the start and never got straightened out. Pan Jette was short. She will improve from this race. In D-bt ran a dull race.

Winner—B. h, by Fonso—Minnie Williams.
Post 8 minntes. Start good. It was a driving fluish and a pretty contest between the first two. Both horses were strougly ridden. Tappan was unfortunate in getting away, but Vandusen took desperate chances down the backstretch and weaved his way through. Knapp, with Lord Zeni, pinned Tappan in on the rail in the last sixteenth. This is how he beat him. Lord Zeni was lucky through both. Facade was far back and in a bad position when the barrier went up. He ran a fine race and finished very strougly. Peter McCue showed his usual phenomenal turn of speed and also his faint-heartedn-ss. He quit to a walk in the stretch. Norma Taylor got a runaway start. It was of no use to her, as Peter McCue showed his to she phenomenal turn of speed and also his faint-heartedn-ss. He quit to a walk in the stretch. Norma Taylor got a runaway start. It was of no use to her, as Peter McCue acced her to exhaustion in the first half. Little Jack Horner made one bid in the stretch and then retired.

Winner—B. c. by Tenny—Soprano.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second eased at the end after an early drive. Considering the condition of the track, which was a trifle cuppy after the rain, this was a grand race both for Tenby and Benneville. Tenby was at his very best and was judiciously handled. Nutr waited as long as he possibly could, thus avoiding the early pace, and made his run at the right time. That was when Eugenia Wickes retired. Tenby had Benneville beaten at the eighth post and was easing up at the end. Benneville was conceding a lot of weight, and considering he had to do this and make the pace, his performance was a high class one. Eugenia Wickes did well as far as she went. Piccola was outclassed.

Overweights—Eugenia Wickes, 1 pound; Benneville, 3½.

Tenby, place, out. Benneville, place, 2 to 5. Piccola, place, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. f, by Strathmore—Zuhlan.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won very easily; second hand ridden; third whipped ont. Uarda smothered her field for speed. She is at her best now and was skillfully rated in front. This filly outclasses this kind. Pan Charm ran a good race. Mathows saw he had no chance to beat Uarda in the stretch and eased the colt up. Mark him. There was a wise play on him today. Elkin was slow to begin and it seemed probable that he would get into a bad mix-up on the first turn. Vandusen was lucky, though, and by good judgment managed to get through. Prosecutor ran a fair race. Henry Launt quit badly in the stretch. So did Einer. The latter was badly handled. Bethlehem Star ran a dull race.

Scratched—12908 Major Hawkins, 106; 130863 Robert Bonner, 111; 132143 Elidad, 106; 13089 Our Johnny, 109; 15271 Ramona, 101; 13050 Necedah, 101.

Winner—B. f, by Inspector B.—Sun Maid.

Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily. It was a drive for the place. Espionage was ready and won handsomely. She shot out of the bunch like a flash on the stretch turn. The filly seemed stiff and sore going to the post but warmed out of it. Sin W. had up a lot of weight and handled it like a gentleman. His race was a very good one. Semper Eadem was tiring at the end. Mark Custance. She showed a lot of speed but was short. Evelyn Byrd ran below her notch. Jim Gore II. ran better than the figures show. He was close up between posts where the call is taken from.
